GENERAL INFORMATION NOTES

Australian Development Scholarships (ADS) provide opportunities for Indonesians to study in Australia at POSTGRADUATE level.

Three hundred scholarships are expected to be awarded in 2009 for commencement in 2009/2010.

Candidates must undertake study in one of the four areas of development priority (see page ii).

ADS are offered in three categories: 'Public' sector, 'Open' and 'Targeted'. Targeted applicants are employees of agencies associated with AusAID activities including government organisations, BUMNs, NGOs, CSOs and key state and private educational institutions which service the training needs of these organisations. Their nomination must be facilitated through the Project Leader or the relevant representative of an AusAID activity.

Public sector applicants are employees from Government departments, state universities and state-owned enterprises - this includes non-PNS employees. Their applications must be approved by the training or foreign cooperation bureaus (BKLN) of their local or central agencies before being submitted. No prior government approval is required for those in the Open category. Public servants cannot apply in the Open category.

Scholarships are for full-time study for a Masters or Doctorate degree from Australian tertiary institutions. The scholarship provides up to nine months full-time language and academic preparation in Indonesia. Students must achieve satisfactory results in this training to be able to continue their scholarships.

Applications from women and candidates in provinces within the geographic focus of AusAID's Country Strategy (see page ii) are encouraged.

The closing date is 5 September 2008.
Applications should be submitted as early as possible.

ELIGIBILITY

IN GENERAL, CANDIDATES MUST:

- be an Indonesian citizen and not have permanent residence in Australia or New Zealand;
- not be married or engaged to a person who is eligible to hold Australian or New Zealand citizenship or permanent residence;
- satisfy Australian Government requirements for international student entry to Australia (health, character etc);
- not hold a scholarship that would give similar benefits;
- not have held an Australian Government Scholarship in the 12 months preceding the application;
- be applying to commence a new course of study and not be seeking support through ADS for a course already commenced in Australia;
- be able to take up the scholarship in the year for which it is offered; and
- satisfy the admission requirements of the Australian tertiary institution in which the course is to be undertaken.

SPECIFICALLY, CANDIDATES MUST:

- be applying for courses that fall within the areas of development priority (see next page);
- at the time of application, be no more than 42 years of age;
- have a Grade Point Average (GPA) of at least 2.9 (on a scale of maximum 4.0) and an English language proficiency of at least 5.0 in IELTS (or 500 in Institutional TOEFL or 170 in International TOEFL). The IELTS or TOEFL result must be current (a test result obtained in 2007 or 2008 will be considered current);
- already hold an undergraduate degree, if applying for a Masters;
- already have a Masters, if applying for a Doctorate;
- apply for a degree at a level higher than their current highest qualification;
- if applying for a Doctorate, applicants will be restricted to staff of universities, higher education institutions, research institutes, key policy makers and targeted candidates in other agencies associated with AusAID activities;
- answer all relevant questions on the application form; and
- be willing and available to undertake full-time (Monday – Friday, 08.00 am – 16.00 pm) English for Academic Purposes (EAP) training in Indonesia prior to studying in Australia, if offered a scholarship;
- it is highly desirable for Doctorate applicants to have a letter of support from an Australian university for their proposed field of study.

CHOOSING A COURSE OF STUDY

Candidates must apply to study courses which fall within AusAID's priority academic areas. These priority academic areas for study will relate directly to the strategic objectives contained in the Australia and Indonesia Country Strategy. An indicative list of the areas for study follows.

Areas of Development Priorities

- Sustainable Growth and Economic Management
Improving economic policy and management, reducing constraints to growth in infrastructure and productivity, and improving natural resource management, environmental governance and response to climate change.
- Democracy, Justice and Good Governance
Strengthening the capacity, accountability and responsiveness of legal, democratic and oversight institutions, and improving local government and public financial management.
- Investing in People
Better quality, access and governance in education, and better health access and systems.
- Safety and Peace
Improving responses to humanitarian needs, emergencies and vulnerability to disasters, and improving capacity to ensure transport security and to counter threats from transnational crime.

Examples of Fields of Study:

agribusiness; agriculture; aquaculture and fisheries; auditing; civil society; computer science and information technology/information management; communicable diseases; conflict resolution; decentralisation; development studies; disaster prevention and management; economics and economic management; education and training; education management and leadership; engineering; environmental law; environmental resource management; financial systems; forestry; gender equity; governance; health management; health services; HIV and AIDS; human resource development; human resource management; human rights; industrial development; industrial relations; infrastructure; international relations; international studies; international trade; labour policy; law, legal and judicial systems; maternal and child health; media studies; natural resource management; peace and conflict studies; political science and government; public administration; public expenditure management; public health; public sector reform; regional and community planning and development; science; tax reform; teacher training; trade and development; transnational crime; transportation management; urban and rural planning; water quality management; women and gender studies.

Candidates considering study for particular professions should note that ADS does not include the practical training period required for professional registration, e.g. medical internships, legal articles etc. Successful awardees are expected to complete such training in their own country.

SELECTION PROCESS

All applicants are considered by an independent Joint Selection Committee comprised of Australian and Indonesian academics. Only those shortlisted will be interviewed. The interview will assess candidates' academic ability, clarity of study goals, cultural adaptability. A critical consideration will be how well the ADS applicant is able to explain the relevance of their proposed study area to the development of Indonesia. The interview will be accompanied by an IELTS test of English language proficiency.

Final selection is objective and based on the principles of merit and equity. The final list of awardees is subject to scrutiny and endorsement by AusAID and State Secretariat.

SELECTION QUOTAS:

In the 2008/2009 ADS cycle, 300 ADS scholarships are available for commencement in 2009/2010. The scholarships are allocated as follows:

- Up to 50% of Masters awards will be offered in the Targeted Sector Category;
- 2/3 of all awards will be offered in the 'Public Sector' category;
- 1/3 of all awards will be offered in the 'Open' category;
- An equal number of awards will be offered to men and women;
- At least 30 percent of all scholarships will be awarded in line with geographic focus of the Country Program Strategy. The geographic focus will include East Nusa Tenggara, West Nusa Tenggara, Papua, West Papua, and Aceh;
- 90 percent of awards at Masters level (270) and 10 percent at Doctorate level (30). (NB doctoral level study is only open to staff of universities, higher education institutions, research institute, key policy makers and targeted candidates in other organizations associated with AusAID activities.

NOTIFICATION OF THE SELECTION RESULT

All applicants will be advised whether or not they have been selected for an interview. All interviewed applicants will be notified whether or not they have been awarded an ADS. The result is final and no correspondence will be entered into. Where appropriate, notification will include details of pre-departure training (English, academic skills, cultural preparation). This training is compulsory and full-time.

REQUIREMENTS FOR SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Prior to traveling to Australia, scholarship recipients must:

- meet the minimum English language requirement of their chosen Australian university (usually IELTS of 6.5 with no band less than 6.0);
- at the completion of EAP training, candidates must achieve a minimum score of IELTS 6.0 for ADS office to commence the application process for placement in a university program in Australia;
- receive a letter of acceptance from an Australian university;
- meet Australian immigration requirements for a student visa;
- receive Government of Indonesia endorsement; and
- Not be pregnant when traveling to Australia to begin study.

In Australia, scholarship recipients must:

- abide by the conditions of the scholarship and the rules of Australian tertiary institutions;
- abide by the rules and regulations governing a student visa;
- act in a way that will not bring disrepute to AusAID, or to any Australian institution or to Indonesia; and
- return home at the end of the award period.

WHAT DO AUSTRALIAN DEVELOPMENT SCHOLARSHIPS COVER?

- fees - payment of academic fees and any other fees compulsory for international students;
- Editorial/tutorial assistance - provided where it is deemed essential to assist awardees to pass course subjects;
- Fares - payment of one return economy airfare from the principal international airports in Indonesia (Jakarta or Denpasar) to the major airport nearest the Australian university. The first reunion airfare entitlement will be available to the student after the successful completion of the first year of study; subsequent reunion airfare entitlements will be available on an annual basis for the duration of the ADS, except for the final year of the ADS. In the case of single students, the definition of family extends to parents and siblings;
- Overseas fieldwork - holders of a scholarship where research comprises at least 50 percent of the program may receive a return airfare to Indonesia to undertake essential fieldwork;
- Family entry – awardees can bring their immediate families (spouse and children) to Australia, at their own cost, if their families meet AusAID and immigration requirements;
- Living allowance - payment of a contribution to living allowance;
- Health cover – for student; awardees are required to maintain OSHC for any accompanying family in order to satisfy visa requirements; and
- Provision of an AusAID Student Visa.

FAMILY ENTRY

Awardees can bring their immediate families (spouse and children) to Australia, at their own cost, if their families meet AusAID and immigration requirements. Families are normally permitted to join 8 weeks after the awardee's arrival.

DO NOT sign the declaration at the end of section 14a until you fully understand the conditions of the scholarship award. If you have any problems understanding Section 11, 12 and 13 you are strongly advised to seek clarification of these conditions from the ADS Office.

11. Conditions of Scholarship

If you are offered a scholarship you will be asked to agree to certain conditions before accepting the scholarship. The main conditions are set out below for your information.

In accepting an Australian Development Scholarship, you will be asked to:

- agree that the scholarship offered is for the appropriate field and level of study;
- acknowledge that no additional study under the scholarship will be considered;
- agree not to change your enrolment without the prior agreement of AusAID;
- agree to study full-time and meet all the course requirements as set out by the education institution;
- agree not to engage in employment outside vacation periods without agreement from AusAID and not beyond the restrictions applying to your visa;
- acknowledge that the scholarship may be withdrawn by the Australian Government;
- agree to return home promptly upon the completion of your studies;
- agree to advise AusAID immediately should you marry an Australian or New Zealand citizen or apply to change your visa status;
- acknowledge that an application for permanent residence in Australia will put you in debt to the Commonwealth of Australia to the total value of your scholarship;
- agree to ensure that the education institution has a current record of your residential address;
- agree to disclosure of information regarding your progress ;
- agree to act in such a manner that will not bring disrepute to yourself, AusAID, your institution or your country of citizenship during the award period.

Please note:

AusAID expects individuals to spend at least two years back in their home country utilising the skills gained before undertaking a further period of long-term study.

Subject to your fulfilling these conditions the Australian Agency for International Development will provide the following, (either directly or through the education institution):

- direct payment to your education institution of the full cost of your tuition;
- payment of one return economy airfare from the principal international airports in Indonesia (Jakarta or Denpasar) to the major airport nearest the Australian university. The first reunion airfare entitlement will be available to the student after the successful completion of the first year of study; subsequent reunion airfare entitlements will be available on an annual basis for the duration of the ADS, except for the final year of the ADS. In the case of single students, the definition of family extends to parents and siblings;
- a once only establishment allowance payment at the commencement of the scholarship in Australia;
- a contribution to living allowance payment every two weeks that is designed to contribute towards your living expenses in Australia, during the course of your award;
- where appropriate and agreed in advance, a once only return economy class airfare to your home country to undertake required field work for your research topic (the living allowance will be continued for the period of approved fieldwork);
- additional tutorial assistance and/or editorial assistance where this is agreed to be necessary to assist your satisfactory academic progress;
- health cover - for students; awardees are required to maintain OSHC for any accompanying family in order to satisfy visa requirement; and
- Provision of an AusAID Student Visa.

Your training institution will provide for:

- instruction and facilities necessary to complete the specified course;
- appropriate academic and welfare support for the duration of your studies; and
- airport reception and temporary accommodation arrangements on arrival in Australia.

12. Privacy Information

The information given in this application will be used to attempt placement in the area of training requested. To enable placement, the Australian government or its representative usually sends this application form to the institutions you have nominated. Details from this form will be recorded. Your own government or employer will be given details about successful and unsuccessful placement. This information may include details about the institutions, training, length of training, and cost associated with the course.

AusAID may exchange personal details and details of previous visits to Australia with immigration authorities to determine suitability for the scholarship and a visa. AusAID and Australian immigration authorities will also exchange information about AusAID students and any request by them to change visa status.

14. Authorisation, Agreement, Declaration and Signature

14a. Applicant's Declaration

I certify that the statements made by me in this application for an Australian Development Scholarship are true, complete and correct to the best of my knowledge.

I fully understand the conditions under which the scholarship is offered, and if offered a scholarship I agree to:

- a) carry out such instructions and abide by such conditions as may be stipulated by both the Australian Government and the institution supervising my scholarship and sign an agreement with the Australian government to that effect;
- b) take up the scholarship in the academic year for which it is offered;
- c) abide by the rules and regulations governing my student visa;
- d) follow the course of study and abide by the rules of institutions in which I undertake to study;
- e) submit any progress reports which may be required;
- f) act in such a manner that will not bring disrepute to myself, AusAID, my institution or my country of citizenship during my award; and
- g) return home at the end of my scholarship, regardless of the time remaining on my visa, or at any time upon formal request of the Australian government.

I also agree:

- h) to the release of information contained in this application form to relevant authorities to enable placement in a tertiary institution and consideration for a scholarship and the ongoing administration of my scholarship;
- i) to undertake any preparatory English language tuition or other bridging program as required by AusAID or my Australian institution;
- j) that the Australian government is not responsible for any aspects of my action while I am in Australia; and
- k) to the exchange of information between AusAID and Australian Immigration Officials.

I understand that the law of Australia and various States and Territories will apply to any agreement between myself and the Australian Government.

I am not aware of any medical condition (disability, illness or pregnancy) which might prevent me from completing my study program within the time allowed for the scholarship.

I fully understand that if I am granted a scholarship, it may be subsequently withdrawn if I fail to make adequate progress, or for other sufficient cause determined by the Australian Government or the institution at which I am enrolled.
